NEW Hyla ZPmed® CERTIFICATE 2026

Worldwide unique, the Premium ZPmed® Certificate for Hyla only!

Dear Hyla Associates,

By beginning of 2016 we have started a cooperation with a bigger and international Institute based in Germany called ZPmed®. For the 10th year in a row the Hyla EST gets certified by ZPmed! Once again, Hyla is being certified with the ZPmed PREMIUM Certificate!

The ZPmed® is part of a healthcare network and evaluates products/procedures from a preventive medical viewpoint upon request. The ZPmed® center for preventive medicine is located in Germany.

We – the Hyla EST & the Hyla Steamer – have been tested and certified as a household device to be used for preventive medicine, as a preventive healthcare.

The PREMIUM ZPmed® certificate is given to products that:

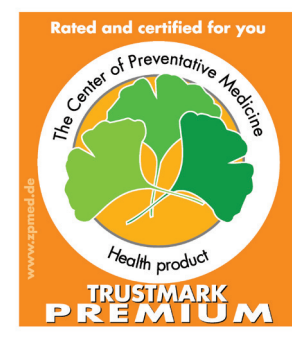

- Are the Best Health Product in their categories
- Offer technical unique solutions for the well-being of customers
- Premium Health Product
- State of Art Product
- Scientifically Proven

Additionally to this update please receive the ZPmed® certificate in English which states that the Hyla is a device that used daily dose prevent different health issues. Please share this update and the certificate with all your Hyla Associates.

We gently ask you to remove the previous ZPmed Logos from all your documents and use the PREMIUM ZPmed 2026 Logo only*!

We feel proud to continue this important cooperation with the ZPmed® center for preventative medicine and even more to count as BEST ZPmed Product in 2026!

An important and big step for the confidence and reliability in all Hyla products by all current and future Hyla customers worldwide.

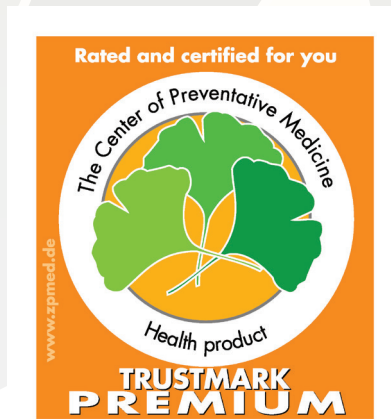

NEW HYLA ZPmed® CERTIFICATE 2026

New HYLA medical certificate!

We are proud to hand out to you a new certificate for the HYLA issued by the German institute CENTER of PREVENTATIVE MEDICINE ZPmed®. The ZPmed® institute confirms and certifies that the HYLA EST is a health product and considered suitable for health care. The CENTER of PREVENTATIVE MEDICINE ZPmed® confirms also that the HYLA EST is the BEST AIR and ROOM CLEANING SYSTEM certified by ZPmed.

This certificate will support all our HYLA consultants on the field.

WORLDWIDE UNIQUE!
